

Aluminium Roller Shutter

This type of roller shutter is the most common. The operation is manual-push up the shutter for opening and pull down for closing. The counter balance springs in the drum help to carry the weight during operation.

Typical Application: Shop houses, Departmental Stall, Banks and Commercial Entrances.

Roller Shutter Types

- Manual Operated
- Motorised Operated
- Chain Block Operated

